SINGLE-SITTING ACRYLIC PAINTINGS

Instruction by Kimberly Votaw

Relaxing, creating, and chatting is a great way to bring people together.

I lead single-sitting acrylic paintings for your group of any size at your location or virtually. Choose from my current library of projects (examples on the back of brochure), or I can create a new painting just for your event! See the packages and contact me to help make your next event creatively fun.

PACKAGES & PRICING

VIRTUAL PACKAGE

After discussing with your coordinator the date, time, and subject for our painting, you will be sent an Amazon wishlist of supplies to share with your participants along with an image of the painting we are going to do for them to print out and use during our event. You provide a $25 Amazon e-card for each painter to cover the cost of their supplies.

You create a Zoom or other virtual platform event that I log into 2 times - on one screen participants can see my face as I give instructions, and the other shows our project.

Your coordinator is saying hello to joining artists, some chatting, then introducing me. I then lead the step-by-step painting process with humor and personal engagement. One and a half hours is a great length for this event.

TESTIMONIALS

"The class was awesome. It was a lot of fun. I have never painted before and you made it so simple that I could follow along and have a painting that people knew what it was when I was done. I will do this again. Thank you for the fun!"

"Your virtual art classes are the best group event during this past year I've experienced. I have no artistic ability, but your classes have introduced me to a new hobby. Hopefully I'll improve. Thank You!"
